A PUBLICATION OF TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH (ELCA)

~Welcome to Trinity Lutheran...Warm Hearts and Willing Hands~

Dear Friends and Family at Trinity,

On December 16, two friends and I were supposed to go to Brookings, SD, for a Home Free concert; we were going to make an overnight of the trip. However as you may recall the weather was horrific, driving conditions were frightening, and almost every road in SD was either closed due to weather or was under a “no travel advisory”. We stayed home.

The incident brought back a happy memory of a time when I was serving in Beresford, SD, and there was a major blizzard. Beresford is just off of the interstate. As road conditions worsened and visibility became less, people began to pull off of the interstate and crowd into the two truck stops. Then the interstate was closed, and people were stranded in-between towns. About 3 o’clock that afternoon I got a phone call from the police asking if we would open our church to stranded motorists; the truck stops were over-flowing. The motel had filled up hours before.

Of course, I said “Sure; our church is always open anyway (drove insurance agents mad!) How many do you think we should expect?” The police officer said, “I suppose 6-8”. “I’ll put on the coffee pots and get out the industrial cookies (Oreos, Fig Newtons, sandwich cookies) we always keep in the kitchen for emergencies” The first two carloads arrived—hunters returning from a week long camping/ hunting trip in Montana. They were soon followed by an elderly couple, then a family with three little girls, then a young mother and a little boy, then...needless to say the numbers continued to grow and the snow continued to come down! It became obvious cookies and coffee were not going to be sufficient so the police officer took me to the grocery store and I cleaned it out of everything I thought could be “stretched” to feed the growing number of guests at the church.

I am always amazed at how God provides. By the time I got back to the church with hamburger, eggs, bread, canned vegetables, and more, a lady from across the street from the church, not a member, just a neighbor, called to say she had noticed our church was filling up with people and she had 2 pounds of hamburger if we needed it. We needed it. Another neighbor, also not a member, called to say she had just baked a cake and some cookies, could we use them. We could.

I took all of the groceries and the donated food into the kitchen and announced that I had delivered it but they were responsible for using it. One of the stranded women said, “I ran a restaurant for 40 years; I know how to cook for crowds. Do any of you other ladies want to help?” Most did want to help; it was something to do.

In the meantime I continued to haul blankets and pillows from the parsonage, which was literally right next door to the church. I also hauled games and cards, and a tiny portable TV so they could continue to monitor weather. I told them they were welcome to go into the sanctuary and sleep on the pews; they were obviously comfortable; members of the congregation slept in them every Sunday!

About that time a six year boy and his daddy, members of the church who lived about a block away came pulling a sled piled high with bedding. The little boy announced that he had “brung-ed” blankets to help the people stuck in the church.

It happened that the tow truck business in town was owned by church members; as they continued to rescue people from stalled cars on the interstate, they automatically brought them to the church. The guest list continued to grow.

When it got time to settle down for the night, we put the family with the 3 little girls in a Sunday School room and the fragile elderly couple in another. The men turned the long dining room tables on their sides to create small but semi-private sleeping areas for the 54 people now gathered in the church.

As I was getting ready to leave and go back to my house for the night I asked if there was anything else they needed. One of the men jokingly said, “NO I think you have provided well for us...although a country dance band might be nice”...and I swear, I swear this is true, he had no more than gotten the words out of his mouth when....

Trinity Lutheran
 Wed. December 14, 2022
 Council Meeting -7:00 pm

Members present: Nikki Smith, Teresa Zaharia, Rhonda Bonk, Eloise Miller, Yvonne Noorlun, Dan Klassen, and Cathy Sorenson

Yvonne called the meeting to order at 7:00. The secretary's report was reviewed and accepted as read

Teresa presented the treasurer's report. There is a balance of $65,724 in the checking account and $51,652 in the savings account. Motion carried to accept the report as read. The council is very grateful to the members who have continued to honor their pledges and to everyone who continues to generously give their offering.

Pastor's report: Pastor Penny mailed 2 sympathy cards, 7 glad you were here cards and 1 thinking of you card. She made 7 nursing home visits and gave communion to 2 residents.

BOARD REPORTS:

Lay ministry--The committee mailed out Christmas cards to each member. The GIFT kids received a card and ornament from Trinity.

Church properties--Dan reported for Mark that we are to continue using the parking lot as we always have.

Christian education--There were approximately 37 kids at Gift last week. They all went to Dollar General and bought gifts for the Ronald McDonald house in Sioux Falls.

They will be delivered on December 20. The GIFT Christmas program will be on January 4 at 5:30. A spaghetti supper will follow.

Youth--Several youth went out to eat on Saturday night and then had a fun night bowling.

Worship--The committee will be meeting in early January to make lists for communion servers, lay readers, and ushers. It was decided to use the disposable communion cups on Christmas Eve.

Stewardship--Rhonda presented a very complete report on the fall Pony Express drive. The total amount pledged for 2023 is $87,075. This is down from last year but we have lost very generous members. The complete report will be printed in the annual report.

OLD BUSINESS--Yvonne gave an update on our search for a new pastor. Eloise made the motion and Dan the second that we buy Christmas gifts for our employed staff. Motion carried.

NEW BUSINESS--The budget for 2023 was the main focus of the meeting. Other areas we need to work on are updating our constitution and discussing the suggestions that were put on Luther's door in October.

Teresa made the motion to adjourn and Eloise made the second.

Cathy Sorenson subbing for Kathy Wilkening

GIFT Kids—BUYING GIFTS FOR THE RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE

WELCA News

The cookie walk did very well this year. The profit was $2,406.60! Thank you to those who made goodies, a monetary contribution, bought cookies, or worked during the sale.

Much of the profit is used for our benevolent giving. This year donations were made to the Salvation Army, Beyond the Yellow Ribbon, Hospice, Lutheran World Relief, Lutheran Social Service, St. Peter Treatment Center, ARC Southwest, Options Pregnancy Center, Steven Ose Ministry, Kids Against Hunger, Heaven's Table, Crest, and Caring Bridge. We also made contributions to the school food shelf, and the Gift program.

If you have not already picked up your WELCA handbook it should be in your mailbox at church.

There are some changes in meeting dates.

Because of the late arrival of the Gather magazine, the Open Bible Study will be the second Thursday of each month. The WELCA meetings will still be quarterly but will be at 9:30 Tuesdays after morning coffee.

the doors opened and there stood 4 people, dressed in western costumes! They were a country dance band who got stalled trying to get to a wedding reception!

In the morning the school superintendent, also a member of the church came to tell anyone who wanted or needed a shower that he would open up the showers in the school. The Montana hunters jumped at that!

By noon our guests were gone, leaving behind an unexpected, and unnecessary offering, and a note, "Thank you for saving our lives; we would have died in our cars on the highway last night".

The story always makes me cry. That night, there was room in the inn for weary travelers. There were people willing to help in so many ways. That is the role of the church isn't it...to offer help and hope, to those who are weary and in trouble, and to do so, in the name of the Christ, who came to save us all...

Dear Trinity Family and Friends.

I would like to thank you as a congregation for the gift certificate for the Good News Bookstore. You know I love books! Thank you too for the beautiful cards with kind words about my ministry with you; they meant a lot as I have enjoyed serving as your pulpit supply pastor, and thank you as well for the many gift cards enclosed in some of the greeting cards. I love to eat even more than I love to read! I am wishing you all a most blessed Happy New Year! Pjr

Thank you Trinity members for the gift certificates to On-Site Massage. I will definitely enjoy them! ~Trinity Office Admin.— Brenda Hansen

Prayers

We remember in our prayers...all who face catastrophic illness, surgery, and bindings of all kinds as well as the homebound: Rosalie Heckman, Jerry Teig, Linnea Huss, Alan Ratike, Marilyn Anderson, Brian Nickerson, Kent Hyndman and the Judy Doble and Joyce Ysker families.

Be present with your Spirit, Lord, and lead us to be your presence to all. Amen.
