

THE MESSENGER

A PUBLICATION OF TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH (ELCA)

~Welcome to Trinity Lutheran...Warm Hearts and Willing Hands~

Dear Family and Friends at Trinity,

I had a dream. It was not as profound as Martin Luther King's, "I had a dream" nor was it as Biblical as the dreams in which God spoke to heroes and non-heroes of the faith-Daniel, Old Testament Joseph, New Testament Joseph, or the wise men, or Paul, to name a few. But, it spoke to me!

Considering I was on a boat, rocking and rolling on the open seas, you would think the dream might have been about boats, or boat disasters, pirates, or whales, sea otters, eagles, or porpoises, it wasn't. It actually was set in my farmhouse home of 50+ years ago and featured my mom and my dad. What was particularly unsettling was how vividly and accurately the kitchen in the farmhouse, and the images of my parents were recalled. This was so vivid, I can still recall it nearly two weeks later~

The set up for the dream was simple. I was an adult, working somewhere but I had promised my dad that I would make it home to attend a Ritter family gathering with his brothers and sisters. It was extremely important to my father that I be at that reunion. I had promised I would make it, but, not everything went as planned. I had to work overtime, or thought I did; it happens when someone assumes they are indispensable.

Then I had a few errands that "absolutely" needed to be done but would 'only take a few minutes'. They took a lot of minutes. By the time I got to the farm. it was way past the time I should have been at the Ritter gathering. Just as I was getting ready to phone (remember this was 50+ years ago!) my aunt to see if the party was still going on, my dad and mom walked through the kitchen door. The disappointment and hurt were evident on my father's face, and in his voice. "All I asked of you was two hours out of your life to be with me at something very important to me and you couldn't even make time for that," The pain in that comment was evident, I offered up all my excuses which sounded very reasonable to me, but made no impact on my dad at all.

When I woke up the imprint of my father's face and voice stayed with me, and raised the question for me. I wonder if that is how God feels when we fail to spend time with Him. I wonder if God is disappointed and hurt when we skip over appointed times to be with Him -Sunday worship. Bible studies, personal and private mediation on Scripture and prayer or helping others in His name. I wonder if all of our excuses, good as they sound to us, ring very hollow to God's ears and heart? I never want to be responsible for inflicting the same kind of hurt and disappointment on my Heavenly Father as I inflicted on my earthly father in that dream. Never!

As I thought about that, a favorite "tongue in cheek" poem came to mind titled "No Time". The author is unknown:

I knelt to pray, but not for long, I had so much to do. Must hurry off and get to work, for bills would soon be due.

And so I said a hurried prayer, jumped up from off my knees; My Christian duty was now done, My soul Could be at ease.

All through the day I had no time, to speak a word of cheer, No time to speak of Christ to friends, They'd laugh at me, I feared.

No time, no time, too much to do-That was my constant cry; No time to give to those in need, At last, 'twas time to die.

And when before the Lord I came, I stood with down-cast eyes. Within His hands He held a book-It was the Book of Life.

God looked into His Book and said, "Your name, I cannot find. I once was going to write it down, but Never found the time".

Blessings

~Pastor Penny~

Thanksgiving Thoughts

Many years ago I was part of a large extended family. However the individual families within that group lived in very small homes which meant that whenever we all got together for a Sunday dinner or a holiday meal, the meal had to be served smorgasbord style with paper plates and plastic silverware, and everyone simply finding a seat where there was an empty space to plop down-on a chair, a couch, or even a stairs. One year we invited some of the family to our home. As was the custom in the family in which I grew up, I set the table with a tablecloth, napkins, silverware, dishes, and a centerpiece. I will never forget the expression on the faces of the two pre-school girls as they approached the dining room. “Oh look,” said one, “a real Thanksgiving dinner!”

I think of that meal often and I am reminded at how important traditions really are for families and for children.

But more than that it always makes me ask. “What is a REAL Thanksgiving?” and the answer of course is found in Scripture. “O give thanks to the Lord, for He is GOOD” and His MERCY endures forever” (Ps. 107:3)

Thanks be to God for His INDESCRIBABLE GIFT (Jesus).(II Cor. 9:15) “Our Lord, we are thankful...for WHAT YOU HAVE DONE...and for YOUR MIGHTY DEEDS” (Is. 12:4) “Give thanks for EVERYTHING to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Eph. 5:20). “Give thanks to the Lord for He is GOOD, and His FAITHFUL LOVE endures forever” (I Chron. 16:34). “We give thanks to You, Lord God Almighty, the One WHO IS AND ALWAYS WAS for now You have assumed your GREAT POWER AND REIGN”. (Rev. 11:12)

Pretty dishes set on a tablecloth, turkey and pumpkin pie may feel like a ‘real Thanksgiving’ but those are only the background scenery. A “real Thanksgiving” is heartfelt gratitude and praises sung to God, for all He has done and continues to do for us, through Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit. HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

Thankoffering  It is time to “Count Your Blessings”.

I know we think more about being thankful at this time of year. One way to show your thankfulness is to participate in our annual Thankoffering service. There will be envelopes in which to put a monetary gift which is sent to WELCA headquarters to help in work with women. If you do not get an envelope you may use your own envelope or just put a check or some cash in the offering basket.

The other way to participate is to bring items for the food shelf. This year the items may go to the school to help needy people here in Truman. The Thankoffering will be Sunday, November 13.

I want to thank you for the personal kits that have been donated. They will be brought to the World Relief warehouse in the cities.

The date for the November WELCA meeting has been changed to Tuesday, November 15 at 9:30 after coffee.. Even though you do not usually come to Tuesday morning coffee, feel free to come early that day and enjoy it before our meeting.

After not having the cookie walk for two years, we are planning on having one December 3. Be thinking about what kind of cookies or candy or treats you might make.

I would like to extend a most sincere "Thank You" to the crew that arrived in my yard on Oct. 9th to help with the garden and yard work which my doctor has forbidden me to do this fall. Thanks to David who returned Sunday afternoon to trim the boulevard tree as well and thanks to Charlie & Robin Miller for helping with the A/C. Your help means a great deal to me. My back is getting better, and I am trying to be a good patient. Again thank you for the work and for your prayers.
